

Special and Local.

The American Sash Co.'s Boneless Sashings, are much better and less than half the cost of ordinary Sashings.

All office or transient business notices in the local department are inserted at the rate of fifteen cents per line—liberal contracts made for three, six or twelve months.

Communications on subjects of interest to the public are always acceptable. The names of writers, however, must always accompany a letter to insure its publication. No responsibility is assumed for any other views than our own.

DECISIONS OF THE COURTS.—Any person who takes a paper regularly and who is not a subscriber, is liable to be taken from the Post Office, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he subscribed or not—is responsible for the pay. If a person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether it is taken from the office or not. The Courts have decided that referees to take depositions and affidavits from the Post Office, or removing and leaving them unsealed, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

HOUSEKEEPERS' ATTENTION.—Many articles which housekeepers have demanded themselves during the dull season when money was scarce, are now found necessary as the holidays approach, and especially must losses, by breakage and otherwise of crockery and glassware be made good. As there is no better place to get a supply than at the magnificent store of Messrs. Kingsland & Heath, of Columbia, the attention of housekeepers is directed there. And not only in crockery and glassware is this establishment well provided, but in every other article that is possibly needed in the properly furnished home, from the kitchen to the bed-chamber. Their store is on Main Street, between the Columbia Hotel.

THE NEW POSTAL LAW.—After the first of January, 1875, editors have to prepare all the papers from their office. Of course no publisher can afford to pay postage for a subscriber in arrears. We give this timely notice to all delinquents that we will not let their names appear on our books after that period.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Two weeks before the expiration of a subscriber's term a small printed slip is inserted in his paper, which gives notice that his paper will be discontinued unless he pays for the next term. A renewal is made the paper is stopped. Please take notice and renew promptly. If you wish the paper continued, we would gladly have each subscriber continue, and trust that no one will feel aggrieved, either at the notice, or after receiving it, if a renewal is not made, on finding that his paper is discontinued.

NO POSTAGE ON THE HERALD IN THIS COUNTY.—Remember that no postage is required on the Herald for papers sent to the County. Small as was the amount, only five cents a quarter, yet it was a bug-bear to many of our readers, because they disliked being taxed for so small a sum. It will trouble them no more. To those who would not renew when their subscription expired because of this tax, an invitation is extended to come back and give us their papers with the cash.

ALL PAPERS SENT OUT OF THE COUNTY, however, are subject to postage, and this has to be paid by the publisher in advance, and before the papers are sent to their destinations. No paper will be sent to subscribers, therefore, who fails to pay in advance.

TAKE NOTICE.—All parties having Advertisements or Executive Notices for publication will save themselves trouble by sending prepared to pay for the same before the expiration of the terms are cash. Lawyers handling in such notices will be held responsible for the payment.

They will also be held responsible for the publication of all notices in Bankruptcy cases. Transient advertisements of any kind must be paid for in advance, if the parties advertising do not reside in town.

All papers shall be stopped hereafter as soon as the term of subscription expires, unless satisfactory arrangements are made to continue the same.

The X mark denotes expiration—after that the paper is discontinued.

Hear these things in mind.

LOOK OUT BENCOMBE.—Heretofore we have been getting our biggest cabbage heads from the State of Bencombe, in the County of North Carolina, but now we are pleased to say that there is a little patch situated on the edge of Newberry and Laurens Counties, cultivated by Mr. Woodbury Farrow, which is as prolific as the best garden spot of the celebrated Bencombe. Specimens of large heads have been left on our table by Mr. F., for which we return thanks. In conclusion, these cabbage heads are a little ahead of anything exhibited in this office, and if any one has the temerity to dispute it we deputize our devil to put a head on him.

REMOVAL.—As announced in last issue, this number of the HERALD has been printed in our new quarters, and the promise made good, but not without tribulation, vexation, toil, turmoil, and great anxiety. The transfer of a printing office from one building to another, down one right of steps and up another—for these kind of establishments—are generally best accommodated up stairs—with its thousand and one tricks, big and little, from the cumbersome printing press to the tiny composing rule, is no trifling matter. It requires a deal of patience and care, and the chances are many that the types will be knocked into a terrible condition of pi. No such accident befell the HERALD, however, we are pleased to say, and now having rested from the excessive labors and trials of the past week, as we glance around at the admirable arrangement of everything about the office in its new location, we feel glad that the trouble is over and that all is well, and that we are in a condition to invite our patrons to call and see how things are fixed.

We cannot refrain, however, from adding how low we were to leave the old place, made dear by the memories of the past. Many joys were experienced there as well as sorrows, but we will not weary the reader. The removal was painful, but it was a necessity, we had to get out where we could see and be seen.

ABOUT THE TOWN AND COUNTY.—Mr. F. E. Salinas proposes to add to his already large and varied stock of fine edibles, choice mince-meat for Christmas pies.

If every one is not posted, we iterate that the HERALD office has changed its place. The office is now over T. F. Harmon's store. Call up at the Captain's office and settle. Every time is needed.

Merchants will find a liberal use of printers' ink very advantageous—at this season especially.

The best time to settle accounts is right now, and if John says Jim, he can pay William, and so on to the end of the chapter. A five dollar green-back, if not stopped by some fellow with a tight grip, will travel far in a day.

A house frame, lately erected at Helena, was blown down and smashed during the late high wind. It was boarded by the weather because the contractor failed to weather-board it.

Luther says—"When thou prayest, let thy words be few and thy thoughts many."

The number of marriages published last week is an encouraging sign that the heads of the young people level. Do likewise, reader, if you have not already made a plunge into the sea of matrimony.

Smithers can pay his debts if he wants to. But the trouble is he don't want to.

The vilest snarer may return—everything but an umbrella.

The most valuable prize for a man to have—Enterprise.

A man who is out of pocket might as well be out of town. Remember this, young men. In fact, you might as well be out of the country.

John was in luck last week. Mary wrote to him to "Comot apastate."

Xmas will be here on the 24th of December, and A. M. Wicker promises that every man, woman or child, without regard to race or previous condition, shall have a good time—if they are willing to pay for it.

Have you sufficient Bill Heads on which to make out your January accounts? If not, call at the HERALD office and have some printed. Do not wait until the last moment.

All other kinds of Job Printing done at this office with neatness and despatch, and as cheaply as in Charleston or New York. Try it.

Surely the turkey and chicken crop of Newberry is not behind that of Edgefield. It really looks so, however, judging by the quantity which comes in from the latter place.

A good advertiser practically puts his show-windows into the newspapers.—Again, it costs less to print advertisements than to send out salesmen. A good advertisement is seen and read by more people in one day than most salesmen can call on in one year.

If the times are hard stop your paper, but do not shorten your allowance for whiskey or tobacco. A good paper in a family is a great comfort to the wife and children, but that is no reason why you should provide them with a weekly luxury at the expense of a daily necessity.

THE HERALD OFFICE is now over T. F. Harmon's large and elegant store, in common parlance and elegant apartments.—It is requested that all parties visiting Harmon will send their way up stairs and give us a call.

We do not charge any more for subscriptions now, since removing into larger quarters, than before our elevation.

The individual who said we have spread ourselves like the eagle has our sympathies.

No one can now make excuse of not being able to find the printing office if he did not like the HERALD office being so near the public square, and we trust all such men will act on the square in future.

The fisher for compliments is not always satisfied—for instance, the question was asked a merchant if he did not like the HERALD office being so near the public square, and this was answered, "W-e-l-l, I'm not sorry!"

simply think they have but little to be thankful for.

We regret to learn that Dr. O. B. Mayer, Jr., lost his horse one night last week.

A ride on one of Mr. Henry Blease's saddle nags is a real pleasure.

We tried one of them on Friday morning last and felt refreshed and invigorated.

Common experience teaches that it is very foolish to expect people to show gratitude for favors done. Publishers experience it continually.

If the road workers do not fix the bad places between the Cemetery and the steam mill they will soon be almost impossible. A very little work would do great good now.

Miscellaneous.

PLANTATION FOR SALE.

I will sell, ON MONDAY, 7th DAY OF DECEMBER, (Sale-Day), that VALUABLE PLANTATION KNOWN AS THE SEIG PLANTATION, lying seven miles North of Newberry C. H., on Union Road, and contains adjoining lands of Col. John S. Renwick, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Glasgow, Dr. Wm. M. Kinard and Thomas Chandler. There is a two-story Dwelling House, and all necessary out-buildings, with convenient horse and carriage drives, and a well of fine water in lot convenient to house. This place has about one hundred acres of the best bottom land, and is in fact one of the best adapted plantations in the County for the cultivation of cotton, corn and small grain. In 1872, Mr. Jordan P. P. rented this place, and with six or seven mules made about one hundred heavy bales of cotton. In 1873, Mr. Budgett rented and made about the same. It is capable of running 12 or 15 mules.

Any person or persons wishing to look at this place can apply to the undersigned at Four Mile House, who will take pleasure in showing the same. It can be treated for sale at private sale, by applying before Sale-Day, or by public sale, on Sale-Day, will be sent to the highest bidder. Terms for buying liberal.

JOHN P. KINARD, Agent for Mrs. Bettie Seig.

NOTICE.

I hereby give notice that I will make a final settlement of the Estate of the late John R. Wicker, in the office of the Hon. James G. Leary, Judge of Probate for Newberry County, on Friday, the 18th day of December next, and that after such final settlement, I will apply to the Probate Court for letters of administration as the Administrator of the Estate of the said John R. Wicker, deceased.

MATTHE SHACKLEFORD, Adm'r., of Est. of John R. Wicker, dec'd.

NOTICE TO TRESPASSERS.

Notice is hereby given that any person found trespassing on my plantation, either by cutting, hauling or otherwise, will be dealt with according to law. This notice will be rigidly carried out, all persons will govern themselves accordingly.
